

The Red Ape Debate

The Future for the Orangutan

27th November 2009

A group of experts, carefully selected in advance by World Land Trust, will be driving our intensive workshops on the future of the orang-utan. These workshops will be held in the afternoon of the 27th of November when an individual from each workshop group will be nominated to speak at the World Land Trust's Red Ape Debate to be held that evening.

Participants in this World Land Trust debate include –

Name	Organisation
Raymond Alfred	WWF-Malaysia
Dr Marc Ancrenaz	Kinabatangan Orang-utan Conservation Project
Helen Buckland	Sumatran Orangutan Society
John Burton	World Land Trust
Dr Susan Cheyne	Orangutan Tropical Peatland Project
Dr David Chivers	Cambridge University, Wildlife Research Group
The Earl of Cranbrook	Red Ape Debate Chairman
Michelle Desilets	Orangutan Land Trust
Lone Drosher-Nielsen	Borneo Orangutan Survival Foundation
Sarah Green	Orangutan Appeal UK
Dr Sonya Hill	Chester Zoo
Wiratno Inung	Directorate General of Forest Protection and Nature Conservation (Indonesia)
Dr. Annette Lanjouw	ARCUS Foundation
Dr Erik Meijaard	Orangutan Conservation Services Programme
Prof Bungaran Saragih	Borneo Orangutan Survival Foundation
Rondang Siregar	Orang-utan Rehabilitation and Reintroduction research
Cathy Smith	Orangutan Foundation
Dr Mark Stanley-Price	IUCN Representative – Reintroduction Specialist Group
Dr Matthew Struebig	Queen Mary University of London
Datu Haji Len Talif Salleh	Forest Department Sarawak

Representatives from Palm Oil Industry and many other specialists will also attend...

For tickets to the Red Ape Debate event held at the Royal Geographic Society on the evening of the 27th of November, please use the following link –
<http://www.worldlandtrust.org/news/events.htm#debate>